

WHAT: “Water of Life” Logo Contests For Artists – Fourteen and Younger
Artists – Fifteen and Above

WHO: Environmental Ministries Commission of the Diocese of Easton (Maryland)

WHEN: Entries must be post-marked by March 30TH, 2010
*Winners will be announced in mid-April, 2010

WHY: The initial theme chosen by the Environment Ministries Commission as a focus of awareness concerns is “water of life” due to the sacred connection of water to our faith, and some of the extreme water pollution issues throughout the Diocese of Easton

ENTRY GUIDELINES:

- 1. Download the entry form’s informational and design sheets from the “Environmental Ministries Home Page” site found at <http://tinyurl.com/DoE-green>
- 2. Using the design entry sheet, create a circular logo that highlights the “Water of Life” theme and which could be easily reproduced for use on the web page, buttons, shirts, etc. The two categories for judging are: 1. Artists fourteen and younger; 2. Artists fifteen and older. (Be sure NOT to put your name on the entry sheet for the design. Identification numbers will be assigned to each entry in the two categories.)
- 3. Fill out the entry form informational sheet. NOTE: *Artists under eighteen must have a parent or guardian’s signature to submit an entry.
- 4. Mail the entry forms to the following address post-marked no later than March 30th, 2010:
